Two Prestigious Gold Hermes Creative Awards Go to DB Consulting Group for HUD, HHS Publications

SILVER SPRING, MD – DB Consulting Group, Inc. (DB) receives two 2009 Gold Hermes Creative Awards in the publications category. Administered and judged by the Association of Marketing and Communications Professionals, the prestigious Hermes Creative Awards recognize excellence in communications, marketing, and emerging media.

DB won Gold Awards for its “Do Something Good” brochure created for Neighborhood Networks, a U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Initiative, and for its “Clearing the Air” handbook created for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), National Institutes of Health’s (NIH) National Cancer Institute (NCI).

“It is an honor to win these very competitive awards that reflect DB’s commitment to delivering exceptional communications products and services that are valued by our peers and federal clients,” said DB Consulting Group CEO Gerald Boyd, Jr.

This year’s winners were selected from more than 3,700 entries from throughout the United States and several other countries. Approximately 18 percent of the entries received a Gold Award. The Gold Award represents communications excellence that exceeds the high standards of the industry norm.
